Biographical Sketch

Anthony James, Chief Executive Officer of Men of Vision Exposed (MOVE), a non-profit organization that provides male mentorship to ex-offenders and at-risk youth, devotes his time to transforming the lives of men and young adults.

A restorer of hope and faith, James imparts his real life experience of drugs and incarceration as a deterrent mechanism for at-risk populations. Certified as a Mentor from the Leadership Training Institute (LTI), Mr. James is a professional motivational speaker, mentor, and counselor who guides men in decision making, improving their lives and spiritual growth. He is also passionate about the game of basketball and hosts Father/Son basketball tournaments called Higher Vision Hoops.

A native of Amityville, NY (Long Island) Chaplain James looks towards the future and the endless stream of green lights and opportunities that await him and his mentees. An innovative and progressive thinker, Chaplain James is on a mission to change every life that crosses his path. His delivery will leave you mesmerized and inspired as he convinces men that all things are possible if they believe.

Chaplain James is a graduate of the Mason Kelly Religious Institute where he earned his credentials as a certified Para-Chaplin, HIV Counselor, and Crisis Intervention Specialist. His first book, The Millionaire's Brother, is coming soon.

"Keep striving for greatness, keep pushing toward your desired result and don't give up. Don't give in. Always look to win."
